Tiger is huge...

And it is still going to get bigger. The latest developer release of 10.4.3 is over 100 GB and has lots of bug fixes already. Rumor has it that it should be released in the near future. Maybe next week?? Did you get an invite?

So, are the Mac Minis really updated? Has anybody seen one of the faster minis? Is it a crap shoot if you order one? Will it be bigger and faster or not? Do they still have a few of the older machines still in stock? I think I will wait until the website updates. Maybe next week?? Did you get an invite?

We have the real Randy Madrid scheduled to address us at the regular Thursday meeting. He always has the latest dirt, or rather information. Plus, he has promised to clarify a couple of recent updates.

I didn't get a review of MacWorld Paris or an invitation so I totally missed it. Did anything happen?

North Coast MUG had their annual mini MacWorld conference on October 1st at Santa Rosa JC. Ed and I attended and we stayed nearly an hour. A small show but it was interesting and had some big name speakers too. Stevie couldn't make it though.

That's all folks...

October 6th meeting features...

Two guest speakers are expected at this meeting. Randy Madrid, of some local fame, will update us on some of the recent new features released in Tiger plus the latest from the rumor mills. Our second speaker will be Peter Lofting from the Font division of Apple. He will reintroduce us to Font Book and provide a valuable Q-and-A session for us. Be sure to attend.
