

SLMUG Meeting Minutes 3/6/2014

Discussion was centered on the upcoming MacWorld/iWorld 2014. Bob will be attending all three days, most of the rest of the group will go on various single days. We'd like to plan a Saturday lunch meetup for any SLMUG members in attendance. As a group, members all recommended different company booths and products worth checking out:

- BackBlaze (1110) – Online backup service (<http://www.backblaze.com>)
- BearExtender (1111) – External Wi-Fi adapter (<http://bearextender.com>)
- Coppertino (Appalooza) – Mac and iOS applications (<http://coppertino.com>)
- ESET North America (MacIT – S4) – Antivirus software (<http://www.eset.com>)
- Drobo (424) – Redundant data storage (<http://www.drobo.com>)
- iKlear/Klear Screen (1324) – Apple polish (<https://www.klearscreen.com/iKlear.aspx>)
- Insanely Great Products (343) – iOS holders and stands (<http://store.igproducts.us>)
- Kanex (628) – Mac and iOS docks and adapters (<http://www.kanexlive.com>)
- LensPen (1232) – Glass and camera lens cleaner (<https://www.lenspen.com>)
- Micromat (1101) – Techtool Pro, Mac diagnostic software (<http://www.micromat.com>)
- olloclip (724) – External camera lens for iPhone (<http://www.olloclip.com>)
- Otterbox (410) – Durable protective cases for iOS devices (<https://www.otterbox.com>)
- Rain Design (624) – Stands for Macs and iPads (<http://www.raindesigninc.com>)
- Readdle (Appalooza) – iOS productivity apps (<http://readdle.com>)
- Rogue Amoeba (Appalooza) – Audio utility apps (<http://rogueamoeba.com>)
- Transporter (630a) – Private cloud storage (<http://www.filetransporter.com>)

Visit the MacWorld/iWorld homepage (<http://www.macworldiworld.com>) for a complete booth listing and schedule. If you haven't already registered, expo only passes are still available for a discounted rate through 3/26 at <http://macworldiworld.com/register>.

Ed presented the March DVD of the Month, featuring security patch updates for recent versions of OS X. If you haven't already, make sure your Macs are all running updated software!

The evening concluded with a "Board Meeting" at the local Denny's.
